Diavolo Creates a Spectacle of Dance and Daring September 12th and 13th at Rancho Cucamonga's Lewis Family Playhouse

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 12, 2008

Rancho Cucamonga, California – Not only a dance troupe, not just gymnasts, nothing like anything you've ever seen – the fearless and amazing Diavolo takes the stage at Rancho Cucamonga's Lewis Family Playhouse on Friday, September 12th and Saturday, September 13th at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are currently available and are $41.50 for General Admission, $39.50 for Seniors, and $33.50 for Youth.

Founded in 1992 in Los Angeles by Jacques Heim, the 10-member company has set out to examine the funny and frightening ways people interact with the environment. During their dazzling shows, the dancers, gymnasts, actors and athletes interact with outrageous and surreal sets, where a door, a chair, a stairway or machinery provide inspiration for dramatic leaps, stunts, flying and twirls.

“As modern society becomes more complex with new technologies and marvelous possibilities, the everyday act of survival becomes increasingly fraught with danger and anxiety,” Heim said. “My work investigates the absurdities of human life and seeks to explore the influences of the environment, possessions and relationships. My aim is to capture and comment upon the ironic and frequently humorous patterns, as well as the darker consequences, of human behavior.”
