“Capitol Steps” Turns Up the Heat – and the Laughs – on Washington During Matinee Engagement at Lewis Family Playhouse

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 29, 2008

Rancho Cucamonga, California – While the nation debates who should be our next president, there is no question who pokes the most fun at Washington. The hilarious comics of Capitol Steps take turns jabbing the democratic process on Sunday, October 5th at 2:00 p.m. at Rancho Cucamonga’s Lewis Family Playhouse. Limited tickets are available and are priced at $31.50 for General Admission, $29.50 for Seniors, and $25.50 for Youth.

Once a group of Congressional staffers, the members of Capitol Steps set out on their own in 1981, taking their unique brand of political musical satire on the road to entertain millions of adoring fans. With good-natured hits at Capitol Hill and the Oval Office, the group has recorded 28 albums and appeared on Good Morning America, the Today Show, 20/20, Entertainment Tonight, Nightline and CNN’s Inside Politics. The group has been featured many times on National Public Radio’s All Things Considered and can be heard four times a year on NPR’s Politics Takes a Holiday specials.

With the slogan “We put the mock in democracy,” the group’s latest hits include Biden Time about the vice presidential candidate’s colorful resume, The Green, Green Grass of Nome explaining Sarah Palin’s position on global warming and Obama Mia! celebrating the media’s love for Barack Obama. The group’s 28th album, Campaign and Suffering, stars the men and women who have made 2008 a year to remember. “They’re the best,” CNN’s Larry King has said. “There’s no one like them, no one in their league.”
