Post film Q&A with cinematographer/director Rick Ray

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 3, 2009

Rancho Cucamonga, California- Follow Director Rick Ray on his journey for a contemporary look at the struggle of the Tibetan people, their relationship with China, and the history of the Dalai Lama. 10 Questions for the Dalai Lama makes its debut at Rancho Cucamonga's Lewis Family Playhouse on Tuesday, March 17, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are priced at $10.00.

Rick Ray's passionate work creates a stunning and intimate view of an extraordinary spiritual leader who is committed to the promotion of human values and religious harmony. Against the backdrop of an exotic land, a lone filmmaker is granted one hour to ask ten questions of the 14th Dalai Lama of Tibet. Including a one-of-kind interview with the current Dalai Lama, this film creates a unique insight on the quest for hope. This part biographical, part philosophical, part political adventure reveals the wisdom of the Dalai Lama through his responses to Rick Ray's insightful questions. This screening also features a Q & A with celebrated filmmaker, writer, director and lecturer Rick Ray.

An intimate, 536- seat venue, the Lewis Family Playhouse is the crown jewel of three-acre, 89,000 square-foot Victoria Gardens Cultural Center. The complex, at 12505 Cultural Center Drive, is conveniently located off the
