

Into the Woods Director/Musical Director, David Lamoureux

David David Lamoureux is a multi-instrumentalist, musical director, arranger, and conductor currently splitting his time between the worlds of musical theater and commercial music.

David has previously worked as a musical director with the Lewis Family Playhouse on their "Broadway at the Gardens" series (Sweeney Todd, RENT) and the RCCT (Joseph...Dreamcoat). Additional direction/musical direction credits include Assassins, Pirates of Penzance, Chicago, Little Shop of Horrors, Once Upon a Mattress, The Will Rogers Follies, and Godspell, to name a few.

As a musician, David has recorded and performed, nationally and internationally, with a wide variety of artists, including Gwen Stefani, Augustana, Counting Crows, Dave Eggar, The Damnells, Millbrook, and currently, New York-based singer/songwriter Katie Costello.